and endorse three checks, one for $17,500, one for $1,600 and one for $250. Morrison frankle said be did not be sere Mr.

Adams knew what he was doing, and as he saw him after the swindle coming from his home, without any apparent sgitstion, be (Morrison) supposed Adams had concluded to allow the checks to be paid. Another man named J. Thornton, is complicated, but not yet arrested.

The matter was worked up by the detectives, employed by Adams' clerk.

Adams, who is 70 years old, has been somewhat ill for two years, and his mind at times is affected. He does not yet seem to realize the extent or nature of the transaction. The largest check was
